A screenshot of a Google sign-in page. At the top left is a small back arrow icon. In the center is a circular placeholder profile picture of a woman with brown hair and a blue shirt. Below the picture, the name "Sally Sample" is displayed in bold black font, followed by her email address "securesally@gmail.com". A large rectangular input field below the name is labeled "Password". A prominent blue rectangular button below the password field contains the white text "Sign in". To the left of the "Sign in" button is a checked checkbox next to the text "Stay signed in". To the right of the "Sign in" button is a link "Need help?".
